Remember the BAC is open on Monday, January 18, 2021 (Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Day) and Monday, February 15, 2021 (President’s Day). We are offering Day Camps on those days to help working parents. Send your students for a fun day of Theatre games, dancing, crafts, and much, much more! The BAC is closed on Sunday, March 14, 2021 for the South Side Irish Parade.

We have lots of special events planned for Black History Month including a showing of Spike Lee’s Do the Right Thing and a staged reading of local playwright, Hana L. Anderson’s new play Being Sincere in the Wilcanic Studio Theatre. See pages 13-14

We are also bringing back our Sunday Funday BACinema family matinee series. Each matinee includes a fun, free family activity. Check out page 10 for more information.

Our professional series presents Steel Magnolias in the Baffes Theatre on January 29-February 7, 2021. A tale of the strength of women and fortitude of friendship set in the south will bring a tear to the eye and a laugh to the lips of all who attend. Check out page 14 for more information.

BAC Junior STAR productions presents Honk Jr, a musical version of the Ugly Duckling on February 26-28, 2021 in the Baffes Theatre. Ticket may be purchased online at www.beverlyartcenter.org or over the phone at (773) 445-3838 x0.

Special Workshops 1-4 week Art Sampler workshops

WORLD DANCE WORKSHOP SERIES
Join Teaching Artist Ysaye McKeever for four 60 minute dance workshops, each focused on a different style of World dance. Week one focuses on “Hula,” the Hawaiian word for “dance” and the spectacular tradition of Polynesian music and dance. Week Two focuses on the dance of West Africa. Deeply rooted in the traditions of the people, this barefoot dance style focuses on rhythmic body movement. Spend a workshop learning about Samba, a dance form that derived from enslaved peoples who were transported from Africa to Brazil to work in the mines and sugar plantations. Finally wrap up this exciting workshop series with a dance form made popular by US crews of street dancers beginning in the 1970’s, Hip Hop. Adults are welcome to join this workshop series too.

A beacon for social emotional learning and development, Theatre workshops provide the opportunity for children to learn how to work as a team (ensemble building), how to express feelings, calm anxiety, and focus on the task at hand, and how to problem-solve within structure and use one's voice and body to fully be present in today’s world. Theatre workshops are also extremely silly, fun, and a terrific way to get up on your feet and engage with the world around you. We have combined Acting, Musical Theatre, Voice, and Movement techniques and activities from summer Zoom classes and Fall hybrid classes to provide a high-quality fulfilling experience for your child. Students who prefer working backstage rather than onstage will enjoy Techies Workshop learning from a professional Theatre technician. Students in Stage Make-up Workshop learn specialty make-up techniques from a professional actor and are given a professional make-up kit, the price of which is included in the tuition.

Performing Arts Categories

BAC LITTLE STAR: 20-21 Productions: Jungle Book Kids, December 2020 and 101 Dalmatians KIDS, August 2021. Students ages 4-7 rehearse a 30-minute performance. This opportunity introduces our youngest performers to being on-stage, playing a character, memorizing simple song lyrics and telling familiar stories. These productions culminate with a simple performance on the Baffes Theatre stage with minimal set, props, and costumes.

BAC JUNIOR STAR: 20-21 Productions: Honk Jr, February 2021 and Madagascar Jr, July 2021. Students ages 8-12 rehearse an up to 90-minute show, experiencing the art of theatre on a deeper level. More advanced theatre techniques are learned while cultivating character-development, performance technique, and vocal work. These productions culminate in a fully-realized production over multiple dates on the Baffes Theatre stage.

BAC TEEN STUDIO: 20-21 Productions: You Can’t Take It with You, March 2021 and Spamalot, August 2021. Students ages 13-22 rehearse a show with themes appropriate for older performers. These include both straight plays and musicals and incorporate the BAC TECHIES class to help get the production up and running. Students learn audition techniques, more advanced theatre theories, acting exercises, warm-up techniques, and push their art to the limit. These productions culminate in a production over multiple dates in the Baffes Theatre or Studio Theatre.

BAC STAR+: 20-21 Production: Disney’s Beauty and the Beast, May 2021. These productions are audition only. Students and community members will get the opportunity to work with a professional director, choreographer, musical director, and theatre designer in addition to performing live on-stage in the Baffes Theatre with professional actors.
SHOWCASES!

Acting and Musical Theatre I, II, and III will all have final performances, either on the Baffes Theatre stage or on a virtual platform at the end of the session in December. More details to come as we keep a close eye on where our city stands in the fight against COVID-19.

Ugly looks quite a bit different from his darling duckling brothers and sisters. The other animals on the farm are quick to notice and point this out, despite his mother’s protective flapping. Feeling rather foul about himself, the little fowl finds himself on an adventure of self-discovery, all the while unknowingly outwitting a very hungry Cat. Along the way, Ugly meets a whole flock of unique characters and finds out being different is not a bad thing to be.

FRANKIE & JOHNNY IN THE CLAIR DE LUNE
Written by Terrence McNally
Directed by Carly Bishop
Frankie and Johnny in the Clair de Lune explores intimacy and vulnerability in humanity’s most sensitive moments, and encourages trust and companionship when something positive comes into one’s life. Through Frankie and Johnny’s tentative romantic beginnings, and their complicated but sweet hope for good prospect together, the audience is urged to celebrate connection, and to learn from one another how best to have faith in our common bonds when the world has taught us not to in the past.

COMEDY OF ERRORS
Written by William Shakespeare
Directed by Carly Bishop
One of Shakespeare’s hysterical comedies! Egeon travels to Ephesus with his son Antipholus and servant, Dromio. Antipholus learns that he has a twin brother, separated from him at birth and assumed lost at sea during a shipwreck in his infancy. The other set of twins, also named Antipholus and Dromio, live in Ephesus, and the new arrivals cause a series of hilarious incidents of mistaken identity.

TORCH SONG
Written by Harvey Fierstein
Directed by Robert Gretta
The life of Arnold Beckoff, a torch song-singing, Jewish drag queen living in New York City, is dramatized over the span of the late 1970s and 1980s through Stonewall, the AIDS crisis, and other ground-breaking milestones for the LGBTQIA community. Told with a likable, human voice, Torch Song follows Arnold's odyssey to find happiness in New York. All he wants is a husband, a child, and a pair of bunny slippers that fit, but a visit from his overbearing mother reminds him that he needs one thing more: respect.

All the best ladies in Chinquapin, Louisiana get their hair done at Truvy’s beauty salon. Helped by her new assistant, Annelle (who is not sure whether or not she is still married), the outspoken, wise-cracking Truvy dispenses shampoos and free advice to the town’s rich curmudgeon, Ouise; an eccentric millionaire, Miss Clairee, who has a raging sweet tooth; and the local social leader, M’Lynn, whose daughter, Shelby, is about to marry a “good ole boy.” Filled with hilarious repartee and not a few acerbic but humorously revealing verbal collisions, the play moves toward tragedy when, in the second act, the spunky Shelby, who is a diabetic. The sudden realization of their mortality affects the others, but also draws on the underlying strength—and love—which give the play, and its characters, the special quality to make them truly touching, funny and marvelously amiable company in good times and bad.
